PATOR OR HOTEL TELEGRAPH—An elegant and useful mechine; a substitute for beils as formerly in use. This invention has invariably received the first premium wherever presented for competition, having received the great premium wherever presented for competition, having received the great media at the American Institute, a silver media at the Booton Fair, and diplomas where media's have been previously awarded it. For its superior performance, we beg to refer to rearly all the leading first class hours to the United Sites. We present the following testimonials of persons who have had great experience in neil hanging, the use of and the putting up of Annunciators.

DEAR Sins: In answer to yours of the lat inst saking my opinion, as to the merits of Jackson's Annunciator, or Bell Telegraph, I beg to state that I have fitted them up in many first class Hotels in varietus parts of the Union, and extensively in this city—that they have given all the satisfaction that possibly could be expected—that I know of no machine that works so correctly in all its parts, and with so much simplicity. Its elegand appearance, as well as its general utility, warrants me in recommending it to hotel proprietors and others, as the most perfect Annunciator, or Bell Telegraph, now in use. Respectfully yours.

THOMAS CHALMERS Bell-Hanger, 5 Mercer-at, Gentra. For the last three years I have used Jackson's Patent Annunciator for Hotels in this city and State, also it vern out, and it has proved perfectly sain fectory to the owners as well as myself. I am decidedly of opinion that It possesses superiority of mechanical construction, efficiency and durability in itself, over all other annunciators. Bell Hanger, 17 Devonshire-at.

AYPR'S CHERRY PECTORAL.—

This invaluable remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, has attained a celebrity from its remarkable cures, never equalled by any other medicine before. Other preparations have shown themselves palliatives, and sometimes effected notable cures, but none has ever so fully won the confe once of every cammunity where it is known—After years of trial in every climate, the results have indisputably shown it to possess a mastery over this dangerous class of diseases, which could not fai to attract the attention of Physicians, Patients, and the public at large.

See the sattements not of obscure individuals and from fat displace visit of the sattements of obscure individuals and from fat displace visit gives me pleasure to certify the value and efficacy of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral' which I consider peculiarly adapted to cure diseases of the sincened physicians of this country, writes The Cherry Pectoral is excensively used in this section, where it has shown unmitaxable self-dence of its happy effects upon pulmonary diseases.

Rev John D Cochrane, a distinguished Clergyman of the English Church, writes to the proprietor from Montreal, that "he has been cured of a severe asthmatic affection, by Cherry Pectoral". His letter at full length, may be found in our Circuisr, to be had of the Agent, and is worth the attention of asthmatic patients.

Where the Cherry Pectoral has been once used, no doubt remains of its virtues and ability to cure diseases of the Lungs.
